Japanese Izakaya Gonpachi Enters One Peking

With the Hong Kong SAR Government's disease prevention measures being relaxed, Gonpachi, the Japanese premium izakaya entered the 28th floor of One Peking before Chinese Lunar New Year. This is their first flagship restaurant in Kowloon district.

Gonpachi is one of the famous izakaya brands in Japan, where the prime minister of Japan invites foreign leaders and distinguished guests for dinner. A sushi "Omakase" area where serves fresh and delicious fish and meals is added in Gonpachi in One Peking. This new area carries out the Gonpachi brand style, as well as continuously offering customers a unique experience of traditional Japanese cuisine. Customers can enjoy the magnificent view of the Victoria Harbor and a series of izakaya cuisine prepared by the executive chef of Gonpachi, bringing classic Edo izakaya to the modern commercial buildings.

Glorious Sun Group always strives for high quality developments by the "choosing the best" strategy. The group will continuously optimize the leasing business and the level of tenant combination of the property to maintain One Peking to be the most outstanding Grade A commercial buildings in the district among the challenging business environment.
